Dineen has been an integral part of the firm's Taxation, Tax Planning, and Tax Litigation team since joining LaBarge Weinstein in 2005. With her Chartered Accountant designation and the completion of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants' In-Depth GST course, Dineen provides clients with extremely comprehensive legal advice when it comes to the tax implications of their business transactions.

Working with a broad range of clients including large multi-national corporations and non-profit organizations, Dineen provides guidance in the areas of both income tax and commodity tax. Dineen also assists clients during the audit, reassessment, and the objection and appeal stage of the tax litigation process.

In addition to Dineen's tax practice, she regularly assists clients with their estate planning needs, which include drafting wills, trusts, and powers of attorney.

Firm Overview

LaBarge Weinstein LLP is a business law firm that has been successfully operating for over 15 years. With an emphasis on knowledge-based and technology companies, our primary practice areas include: Corporate, Commercial, and Securities; Intellectual Property and Licensing; Real Estate and Debt Financing; and Taxation, Tax Planning and Tax Litigation. Headquartered in Ottawa, we also have offices in Toronto, Vancouver, and Waterloo.

LaBarge Weinstein is made up of a dynamic team of over 35 professionals who have the experience necessary to deal with the legal and business issues that face our clients every day. This group is successfully led by our nine partners, who have over 150 combined years in practice.

At LaBarge Weinstein, we have a different philosophy than most law firms. We pride ourselves on being a client-centric firm by providing prompt, creative, and effective advice and solutions. We also prefer to think of our clients as business partners, and our goal is to ensure that each and every client receives the most practical and economical legal advice possible.
