Gisèle joined the Licensing Group at LaBarge Weinstein in October 2009. Gisèle's practice is focused on technology contracting and compliance including licensing, distribution, outsourcing, privacy and e-commerce. She is also a registered trade-mark agent in Canada.

Prior to joining LaBarge Weinstein, Gisèle articulated and then worked as an associate lawyer in the Intellectual Property, Media and Technology department of Lovells LLP (now Hogan Lovells LLP) in London, England where she advised on all aspects of information technology, media and data protection law. She also worked on in-house placements for two leading media and telecoms companies in the UK where she provided regulatory and contract support.

Gisèle is on the executive committees of the OBA's IT and E-Commerce Law Section, the Cambridge Society of Ottawa and the Network of Black Business and Professional Women. She is also a mentor with the University of Ottawa's Law School's Legal Links and Bridges Program.

Firm Overview

LaBarge Weinstein LLP is a business law firm that has been successfully operating for over 18 years. With an emphasis on knowledge-based and technology companies, our primary practice areas include: Corporate, Commercial, and Securities; Intellectual Property and Licensing; Real Estate and Debt Financing; and Taxation, Tax Planning and Tax Litigation. Headquartered in Ottawa, we also have offices in Toronto, Vancouver, and Waterloo.

LaBarge Weinstein is made up of a dynamic team of over 35 professionals who have the experience necessary to deal with the legal and business issues that face our clients every day. This group is successfully led by our nine partners, who have over 150 combined years in practice.

At LaBarge Weinstein, we have a different philosophy than most law firms. We pride ourselves on being a client-centric firm by providing prompt, creative, and effective advice and solutions. We also prefer to think of our clients as business partners, and our goal is to ensure that each and every client receives the most practical and economical legal advice possible.
