Taisha is part of the firm's Corporate, Commercial and Securities group. Having first joined LaBarge Weinstein as a summer student in 2012, Taisha returned to complete her articles and was then hired as an associate.

Before law school, Taisha graduated from McMaster University where she obtained her Bachelor of Arts and Science (Honours) with distinction and a minor in French. She then went on to obtain her Juris Doctorate from the University of Ottawa where she was awarded the Vern Krishna Scholarship and the Students Federation of the University of Ottawa Educational Foundation Scholarship. While working towards her JD, Taisha completed an internship with BMO's Legal, Corporate and Compliance Group. She also competed in the Wilson Moot Court Competition as well as the Nelligan O'Brien Payne LLP Moot Court Competition, and volunteered with the Women's Legal Mentorship Program.

Taisha is a member of the Ontario Bar Association and the Canadian Association of Black Lawyers.

Firm Overview

LaBarge Weinstein LLP is a business law firm that has been successfully operating for over 15 years. With an emphasis on knowledge-based and technology companies, our primary practice areas include: Corporate, Commercial, and Securities; Intellectual Property and Licensing; Real Estate and Debt Financing; and Taxation, Tax Planning and Tax Litigation. Headquartered in Ottawa, we also have offices in Toronto, Vancouver, and Waterloo.

LaBarge Weinstein is made up of a dynamic team of over 35 professionals who have the experience necessary to deal with the legal and business issues that face our clients every day. This group is successfully led by our nine partners, who have over 150 combined years in practice.

At LaBarge Weinstein, we have a different philosophy than most law firms. We pride ourselves on being a client-centric firm by providing prompt, creative, and effective advice and solutions. We also prefer to think of our clients as business partners, and our goal is to ensure that each and every client receives the most practical and economical legal advice possible.
