

Tayyaba Khan

Associate, LaBarge Weinstein LLP
Called to the Bar ON - 2014
University of Ottawa

tkhan@lwlaw.com

613.599.9600 Ext. 279

Tayyaba is an associate with the firm's Corporate, Commercial and Securities group. After starting at LaBarge Weinstein as a summer student in 2012, Tayyaba returned to complete her articling with the firm.

Tayyaba obtained her Juris Doctorate from the University of Ottawa, where she graduated Cum Laude. She also has a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Economics and Statistics from York University.

Prior to law school, Tayyaba spent three years working as a Senior Associate in Securities Valuation at State Street Global Services.

Firm Overview

LaBarge Weinstein LLP is a business law firm that has been successfully operating for over 15 years. With an emphasis on knowledge-based and technology companies, our primary practice areas include: Corporate, Commercial, and Securities; Intellectual Property and Licensing; Real Estate and Debt Financing; and Taxation, Tax Planning and Tax Litigation. Headquartered in Ottawa, we also have offices in Toronto, Vancouver, and Waterloo.

LaBarge Weinstein is made up of a dynamic team of over 35 professionals who have the experience necessary to deal with the legal and business issues that face our clients every day. This group is successfully led by our nine partners, who have over 150 combined years in practice.

At LaBarge Weinstein, we have a different philosophy than most law firms. We pride ourselves on being a client-centric firm by providing prompt, creative, and effective advice and solutions. We also prefer to think of our clients as business partners, and our goal is to ensure that each and every client receives the most practical and economical legal advice possible.